Listening Texts

MODEL 1

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

My name is Salma. My dream job is to be a nurse. I like to help patients and give them treatment. My job requires me to communicate clearly, and take responsibility. I'm studying hard to get a university degree. My teacher says I must act like a professional. I want to inspire other young people to choose this career. I believe medicine is important for society.

MODEL 2

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

A school day can be enjoyable if you follow simple steps. Wake up early, prepare your bag, and arrive on time. Greet teachers and classmates politely. Listen carefully, take notes, and ask questions without interrupting. Eat healthy snacks, drink water, and stay safe. After school, review lessons, finish homework, and avoid distractions. Planning helps you learn confidently.

MODEL 3

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

The Earth is the special planet where we all live together. People call it the Blue Planet because it has so much water. The big oceans cover most of our world. There is also land where we build our houses and cities. The Earth goes around the sun one time every year. We must keep our planet clean and safe for animals.

MODEL 4

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Hassan lives in a small tribe in the desert. It is very hot there in the summer. They have three camels and some goats. They drink water from a deep well. At night, it becomes cold. Hassan likes to look at the bright stars. He eats dates and drinks milk every morning for breakfast.

MODEL 5

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

As a guide, I teach tourists about desert safety. Last month, our jeep broke down 50 miles from town. We stayed calm and used mirrors to reflect sunlight to signal for help. We shared our water equally and wore bright clothes to stay cool. Working together helped us stay safe and comfortable until help arrived.

MODEL 6

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Welcome to my school! Students must follow the dress code and wear the school uniform every day. Sneakers and jeans are not allowed. Running in the hallways is forbidden, and students should respect teachers and classmates. In class, talking without permission is not allowed. Good behavior and following rules help keep the school clean and safe for everyone.

MODEL 7

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Hi, I'm Rana, and I am a journalist. I write news stories and interview people from many places. My job is exciting, but sometimes it is dangerous, especially when reporting fires or accidents. I always stay careful and aware to stay safe. Being a journalist teaches me to observe things closely and share important news with everyone.

MODEL 8

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Schools worldwide are using smart learning, which makes lessons fun with digital tools, songs, and stories. Instead of just memorizing, students explore ideas creatively and connect knowledge to real life. Singing helps with memory, pronunciation, and focus, while stories teach values and culture. Together, songs and storytelling make classrooms enjoyable, interactive, and full of learning opportunities.

MODEL 9

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Our planet is very important, and we all have to take care of it. Pollution, deforestation, and climate change are harming the environment. We can help by recycling, saving energy, and planting trees. Using less plastic and walking or recycling instead of driving can also make a difference. Everyone can do small things to protect the Earth. If we all work together, we can make the planet cleaner and healthier for future generations.

MODEL 10

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Today was my first day with a Bedouin family in the Sahara Desert. I woke up early to a cool sunrise over the sand dunes. I ate dates and drank camel milk. At noon, we walked across the warm desert until the heat made us rest in the tent's shade. In the evening, we enjoyed a colorful sunset, traditional bread, and songs by the fire. I slept happily on a soft carpet, excited for tomorrow's trip to the oasis.

4 Read the following text, then answer the questions:

In many schools, the timetable is one of the most important tools for managing the day. It tells students which subjects they have, when lessons begin, and what materials they should bring. Each morning, teachers review the timetable with their classes to make sure everyone is prepared. When changes happen—such as competitions, or special celebrations—students must adjust quickly. This helps them develop responsibility and problem-solving skills.

The timetable also includes short breaks between lessons. These pauses allow students to rest, organize their notebooks, and mentally prepare for the next subject. Without these breaks, the school day would feel longer and more stressful. For many students, the timetable acts like a compass, guiding them through the day and helping them stay on track. It not only keeps the school running smoothly but also teaches students how to manage time effectively.

Ahmed and Mahmoud reviewed the new school rules and timetable. The morning line is now at 7:45, so everyone must arrive earlier. Students should wear the school uniform every day. The most important rule is that students mustn't use their phones during lessons as they are a big distraction. They also discussed how to manage homework time. They agreed to present their ideas to the teacher.

Sample Test 2

Scientists believe some video games can make you smarter. Brain training games can improve concentration and help players solve problems faster. Puzzle games can help the brain work harder to find solutions. Many teachers now use games in their classrooms. Students learn better when they're having fun. Games can make difficult subjects like math and science more interesting. They also help shy students participate actively in lessons.

Sample Test 3

Many students feel anxious about exams. To reduce stress, students should start studying early. Students should take short breaks while studying to stay focused. Students can ask their teachers if they don't understand something. Eating healthy food helps their brain work better while studying.

Sample Test 4

Choosing the right job is important as it can bring us a happy life. To succeed in a job, you need more than just certificates. You need skills like teamwork and problem-solving. Values are also important. Values guide you to a career that matches your personality. For example, if you value nature, you might become an environmental scientist. A job is meaningful when it fits what you believe in.

Sample Test 5

Salma found an old wooden box. Inside the box, there was a yellow letter from her grandfather. The ink had faded, but she could still read the words. The letter wished her mother a life full of courage and kindness. Salma felt that this letter was a precious treasure for her family.

Sample Test 6

A kind, poor farmer found a weak bird trapped in a net. The farmer gently freed the bird. After he had helped it, the bird suddenly changed into a young man who promised to help the farmer on his farm. They worked and lived happily, but the young man asked the farmer not to ask about his past. One day, the farmer broke his promise, and the young man sadly left teaching the farmer the importance of keeping promises.

Sample Test 7

Sarah went hiking in the Sahara Desert and got lost for five days. She used her jacket to make a shelter under a rock to stay cool during the day. She built a small fire at night to keep warm. She conserved her water by taking tiny sips every hour. Finally, she was rescued.

Sample Test 8

Ahmed went on a desert safari with his friends. While they were driving, their jeep broke down. They had some water, but it was very hot. They stayed calm and signaled for help using mirrors to reflect sunlight. They shared their water equally among the group and covered themselves with light - colored clothing to stay cool. Luckily, a guide saw the signal and came to help them. They learned that preparation is very important for desert trips.

Sample Test 9

To save the Earth, we need to take action. Simple things can help. Turn off the lights when you leave a room. Use less water when you brush your teeth. Walk or ride a bike instead of using a car. Planting trees is very important because trees clean the air. We also should try to reduce pollution and wastes because they are harming animals and people.

Sample Test 10

Our planet seems to be facing many changes. Earth is suffering from pollution, cutting down forests and climate change. Climate change is making the Earth hotter. This causes ice to melt and sea levels to rise. Extreme weather like droughts and floods is becoming common. Scientists say we must stop polluting the air. We have used too much oil and gas. We need to switch to clean energy like wind and solar power.

Listening Script (For Teacher Only):

Our planet is very important, and we all have to take care of it. Pollution, deforestation, and climate change are harming the environment. We can help by recycling, saving energy, and planting trees. Using less plastic and walking or recycling instead of driving can also make a difference. Everyone can do small things to protect the Earth. If we all work together, we can make the planet cleaner and healthier for future generations.
